

Arts Council of Henderson County Announces Jazz Appreciation Month Events

Hendersonville NC – The Arts Council of Henderson County, in association with The Center for Art & Inspiration, presents the inaugural Henderson County Jazz Appreciation Month. The Hendersonville “JAM” will feature both local and national artists across multiple venues in Henderson County. The “JAM” appears in conjunction with the Smithsonian’s Jazz Appreciation Month throughout April of 2019.

The National Museum of American History created JAM in 2001 to draw the public’s attention to the glories of jazz as both a historical treasure and a living treasure. “The Arts Council of Henderson County seeks to shine a spotlight on the jazz artists of today who are carrying the torch for this most American of artforms,” said Josh Dunkin, President of the Arts Council of Henderson County.
